

I wish to ask that the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protection. This law has enabled me to enjoy what little time I have at home, without sometimes 8 telephone calls per night. I now receive perhaps one per week which is all I need. I receive plenty of telephone calls each day in my work and I don't need them in the evening and on weekends.